Cashmere Cat (b. 1987, Norway) is a musical producer and DJ who has risen to fame with 30+ international headline dates including a packed out SXSW, MMW & Music Hall of Williamsburg, and recent single 'With Me', which premiered with Zane Lowe on BBC Radio One & video premiere at Rolling Stone. Cat's worked with the likes of Kanye West, Ariana Grande and Tinashe, and was featured on the Ludacris single "Party Girls" alongside Jeremih & Wiz Khalifa, which allowed him to star in his first Hype Williams directed video. On Wedding Bells – his debut vinyl EP – Cashmere Cat moves beyond conventional pop arrangements with a range of highly syncopated pentatonic workouts.

The Wedding Bells EP represents the next stage for Cashmere Cat as recording artist and has commanded support so far from: Kode 9, Éclair Fifi, Nguzunguzu, Hud Mo, Rustie, Baauer, Diplo, Skrillex, A Trak, Brodinski – as well as BBC Radio One & Triple J.

Jillionaire (b. 1978, Trinidad and Tobago) is a DJ and producer, best known for being a member of the American electronic music group Major Lazer, along with Diplo and Walshy Fire. Working with everyone from Snoop Dogg to Pharrell Williams, Jillionaire has also contributed to several artists: Salvatore Ganacci in his EP named Fresh, with Swick in Ants Nests featuring T.O.K, and with Phat Deuce in FI DI GAL DEM featuring Mr. Lexx. In 2014, he released an EP named Fresh along with Salvatore Ganacci.

Luther “Uncle Luke” Campbell (b. 1960, Miami, Florida) is Hip-hop's original bad boy, pop culture icon, and consummate businessman. He’s one of the few American celebrities who has had an indelible impact on the worlds of rap music, sports, business, law, and politics simultaneously. He is the former member of the multi-platinum rap group 2 Live Crew and was the first Southern rap star to emerge on the Billboard Pop Charts with “Move Something”, released in 1988. Campbell’s recent solo album, My Life & Freaky Times, was released in March 2006 and featured Trick Daddy, Petey Pablo, Jacki-O, Pitbull, Dirtbag, and Big Tigger. In 2015, Luther released his memoir entitled “The Book of Luke, My Fight for Truth Justice and Liberty City” via the Harper Collins imprint, which provides a detailed insight into the music business and Luther Campbell outside of music.
