

Pérez Art Museum Miami
1103 Biscayne Blvd.
Miami, FL 33132
305 375 3000
pamm.org

Pérez Art Museum Miami Appoints New Board President and Welcomes a New Trustee

MIAMI – October 24, 2017 – Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) has appointed Gregory C. Ferrero as president to its board and has named Alia Tutor as a new trustee.

"The PAMM family is thrilled to have Greg Ferrero as its new president. Greg is a trusted advisor to some of the wealthiest families in the world. He has always been dedicated to helping the community as a volunteer. His dedication to the arts will help PAMM and all of the cultural institutions as they work together to make South Florida a better place to live," said Aaron Podhurst, PAMM Board of Trustees chairman.

Ferrero is preceded by Jeff Krinsky, who served as president for three years. During that time, PAMM acquired a number of significant acquisitions, the creation of several endowments for strategic acquisitions, the successful integration of new technology in PAMM's digital spaces several technological strides in the museum spaces, and a milestone attendance mark of one-million visitors.

"Our gratitude to Jeff Krinsky cannot be overstated. His presence as a trustee for the last nine years and most recently his leadership as board president has been integral to the success of PAMM," said PAMM Director Franklin Sirmans. "Jeff's guidance and generosity has made a lasting impact on the organization and we couldn't be more excited for the next stage in the museum's evolution. I know Greg Ferrero's professional and philanthropic guidance will take the institution to the next level."

Greg Ferrero manages the domestic and Latin American Wealth Management business in Florida and serves on the IMD Portfolio Review Board. He joined Goldman Sachs in 1990 as an investment professional in New York, where he worked with a select group of families for 17 years before relocating to Miami. Greg was named managing director in 2006. Ferrero serves on the Board of Trustees of Pérez Art Museum Miami, the Board of Trustees at St. Lawrence University, the Board of Directors of the Pearl Tree Point School Foundation in Darien, Connecticut, and the Board of Governors at La Gorce Country Club. Ferrero earned an MBA from Harvard Business School, a BS in Chemistry from St. Lawrence University and a BS in Chemical Engineering from Columbia University.

“Art is a vehicle by which people can have a conversation about the world we live in,” said Ferrero. “I’m honored to build on PAMM’s efforts to expand access to the museum while bringing the heritage of our diverse community to life through art.”

Alia Tutor has been described as a “tireless advocate for the welfare of children and women around the world.” A philanthropist and humanitarian, Tutor established the Alia Tutor Chair in Reproductive Medicine at University of Southern California (USC), fostering groundbreaking research and treatment, and currently serves as a member of the Board of Overseers for the Keck School of Medicine of USC. She also serves as a member of the Board of Trustees for Children’s Hospital Los Angeles and is a co-chair of the Government Relations Committee at Children’s Hospital Los Angeles. Tutor is a member of the Southern California Regional Board of Directors for UNICEF and serves on the board of trustees of the Aspen Music Festival and School. She received her J.D. from Columbia Law School.

“PAMM has not only developed into one of the premiere art institutions in the world, but it continues to innovate and go beyond what people think of a traditional art museum,” said Tutor. “I look forward to being part of the board and seeing the institution through to its next chapter.”

About Pérez Art Museum Miami

Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) promotes artistic expression and the exchange of ideas, advancing public knowledge and appreciation of art, architecture and design, and reflecting the diverse community of its pivotal geographic location at the crossroads of the Americas. A nearly 35-year-old South Florida institution formerly known as Miami Art Museum (MAM), Pérez Art Museum Miami opened a new building, designed by world-renowned architects Herzog & de Meuron, in Downtown Miami’s Museum Park on December 4, 2013. The facility is a state-of-the-art model for sustainable museum design and progressive programming and features 200,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor program space with flexible galleries; shaded outdoor verandas; a waterfront restaurant and bar; a museum shop; and an education center with a library, media lab and classroom spaces. For more information, please visit www.pamm.org, find us on Facebook (facebook.com/perezartmuseummiami), or follow us on Twitter/Instagram (@pamm).

Media Contact: Alexa Ferra | aferra@pamm.org | 786 345 5619

###

Accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) is sponsored in part by the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs, and the Florida Council on Arts and Culture. Support is provided by the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners. Additional support is provided by the City of Miami and the Miami OMNI Community Redevelopment Agency (OMNI CRA). Pérez Art Museum Miami is an accessible facility. All contents ©Pérez Art Museum Miami. All rights reserved.

